

FREE EVENING TALK

Setting up your puppy for success Building confidence and positive relationships through motivation and understanding

Getting a puppy can be an exciting time for yourself and your family. But it can bring lots of new challenges with socialising and training your puppy.

On Wednesday 20th March, we will be holding a FREE evening talk on setting your puppy up for success at our Crowborough Well House Vets Branch. We have a guest speaker from the Puppy School to give you the talk. This evening has been designed to deliver information on training and reading your puppy's body language in a fun, yet informative way. So, if you currently own or are thinking about getting a puppy please join us on this fun and educational talk!*

The topics we will be covering in this talk include:

- Reward-Based Training and Why it's Important
- The Importance of Body Language
- Top 5 Puppy Training Tips and Understanding your Puppy's Body Language
 - House training
 - Socialisation with Dogs and People
 - Handling
 - Home Alone
 - Play Biting and Toy Play
- How Puppy School can help you kick start your training and socialisation

If you have any questions or would like to register for the event, please call Kelly on 01892 653088 or email us at info@well-housevets.co.uk

Spaces are limited so please book in advance.

Date: Wednesday 20th March 2019

Time: 7:30PM (please allow 45 minutes - 1 hour for the session)

Where: Well House Vets, Crowborough Hill, Crowborough, TN6 2SE
